

F. Charles Frey, IV, PhD

F. Charles Frey, IV, PhD is a Licensed Clinical Psychologist who has been in practice in Louisiana since 2004.

Dr. Frey specializes in psychological and educational assessment of children, adolescents, and adults and is experienced in evaluation of learning disorders, ADHD and other disruptive behavior disorders, mood disorders, pervasive developmental (autism spectrum) disorders, and anxiety disorders. His practice also focuses on psychological evaluation and rehabilitation of individuals suffering from chronic pain.

In addition to providing pre-procedure and consultative services and treatment in medical settings, Dr. Frey performs forensic psychological evaluations and has been recognized as an expert in clinical psychology by the Civil District Court for the Parish of Orleans, State of Louisiana. He is the consulting clinical psychologist for the Episcopal Diocese of Louisiana.

Dr. Frey holds a Ph.D. in Psychology from the University of Georgia, where his clinical work focused on psychometric testing and evaluation and treatment anxiety disorders. He completed his clinical internship at the New Orleans VA Medical Center, with a specialization in the assessment and treatment of Posttraumatic Stress Disorder.

Dr. Frey has authored several published research articles and served as an instructor in the Dept. of Psychology at Louisiana State University. He is a member of the American and Louisiana Psychological Associations.

*For more information, please visit
JeffersonNeuro.com or call 1.888.JEFFNEURO*

Jefferson Neurobehavioral Group